

Hello

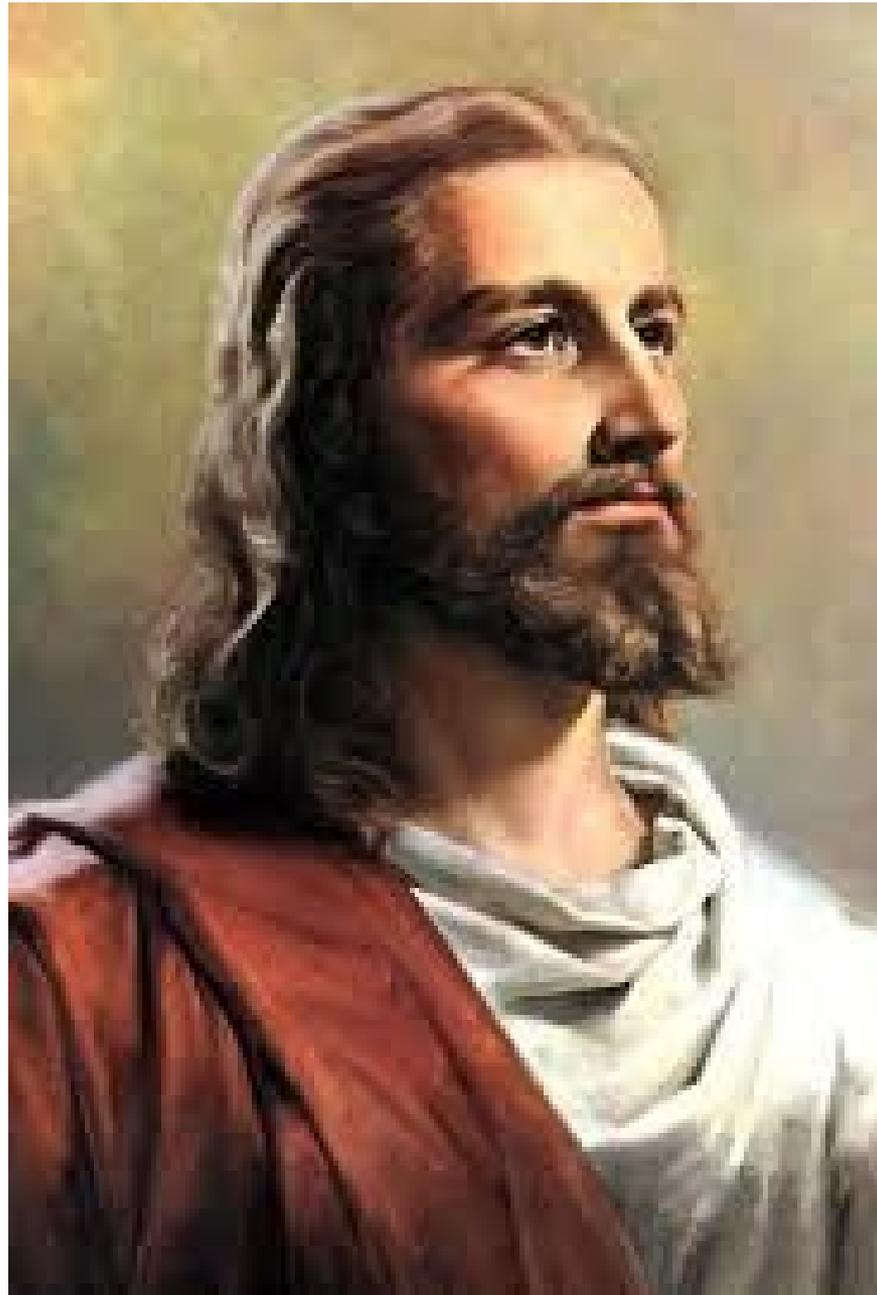

my name is

JESUS

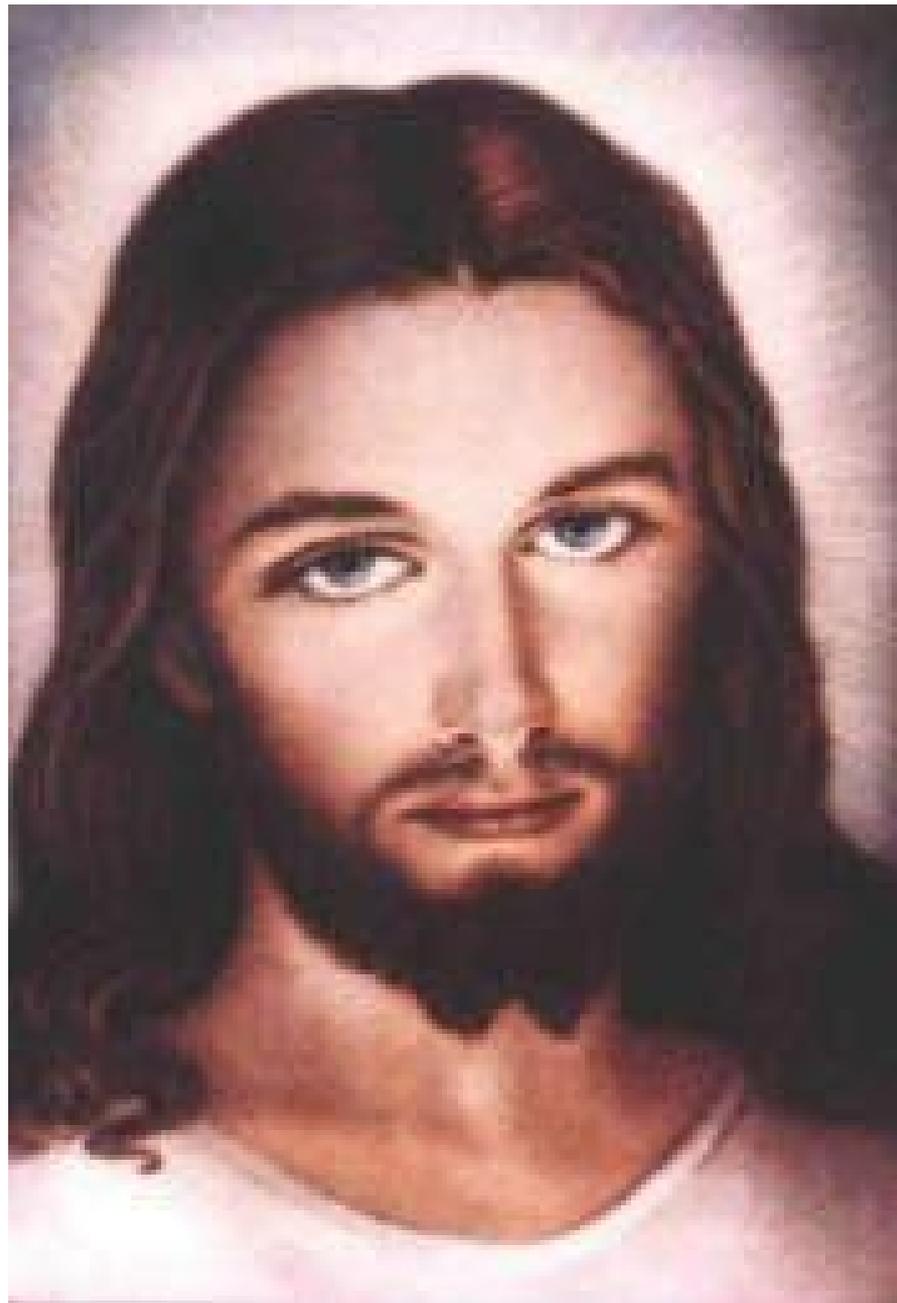

Week 1

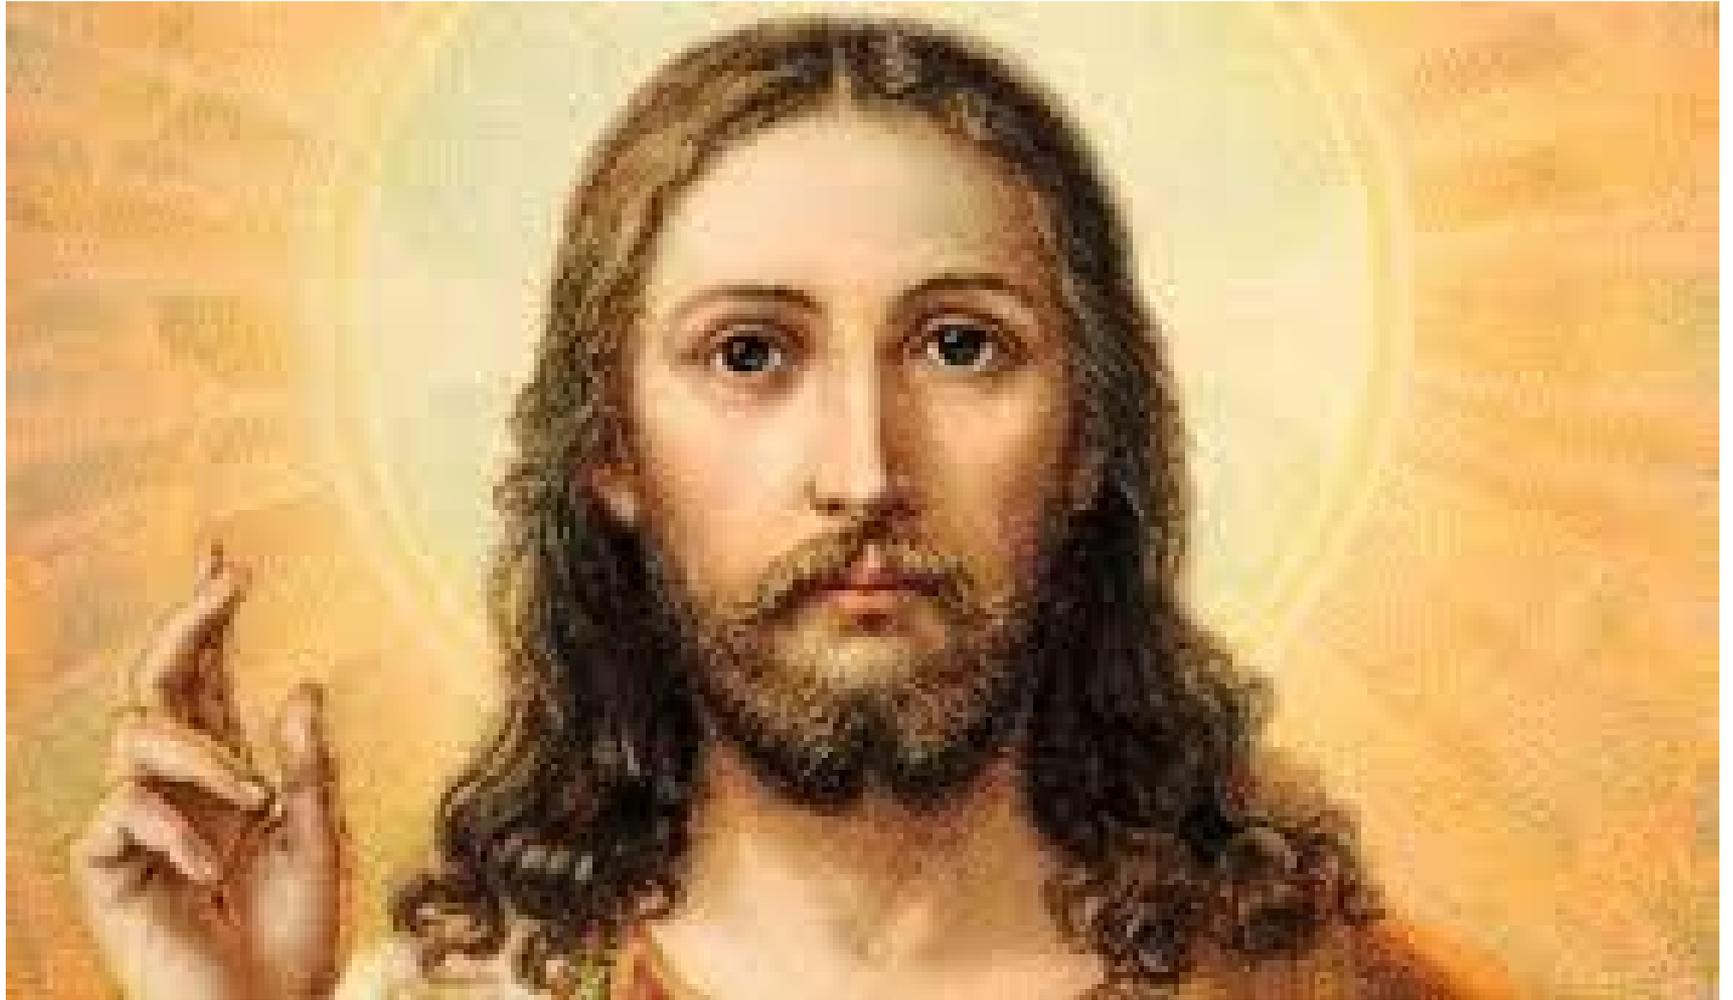

Hello
my name is

When you think about Jesus what comes to mind?

Hello
my name is

Philippians 3:5-10a NLT and AMPC

⁵I was circumcised when I was eight days old. I am a pure-blooded citizen of Israel and a member of the tribe of Benjamin—a real Hebrew if there ever was one! I was a member

Hello
my name is of the Pharisees, who demand the strictest obedience to the Jewish law. ⁶I was so zealous that I harshly persecuted the church. And as for righteousness, I obeyed the law without fault.

Hello
my name is

⁷I once thought these things were valuable, but now I consider them worthless because of what Christ has done. ⁸Yes, everything else is worthless when compared with the infinite value of knowing Christ Jesus my

Hello

my name is

Lord. For his sake I have discarded everything else, counting it all as garbage, so that I could gain Christ ⁹ and become one with him. I no longer count on my own righteousness through obeying the law; rather, I become righteous through faith in Christ. For God's

Hello
my name is

way of making us right with himself depends on faith. ¹⁰ I want to know Christ and experience the mighty power that raised him from the dead.

Hello

my name is

Philippians 3:10a AMPC

¹⁰ [For my determined purpose is] that I may know Him [that I may progressively become more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him, perceiving and recognizing and understanding the wonders of His Person more strongly and more clearly].

Hello

my name is

"To know" is translated from the word ginosko in the Greek. Ginosko speaks of the attaining of personal or "experiential" knowledge. In other words, ginosko is not just an intellectual knowledge of the facts but is a personal experience of something or someone.

Hello

my name is

The Hebrew word yada' (to know) is translated ginosko. In Genesis 4:1 Moses records that "Adam knew (Hebrew-yada') Eve his wife; and she conceived and bore Cain."

Hello
my name is

Paul's aim is not to just know about Christ, but to know Him personally and intimately.

Hello
my name is

Three questions to ask ourselves?

Hello
my name is

How can we deeply love Jesus if we don't know Him?

Hello
my name is

How can we deeply love Jesus if we don't know Him?

How can we be like Him and act like him if we don't know Him?

Hello

my name is

How can we deeply love Jesus if we don't know Him?

How can we be like Him and act like him if we don't know Him?

How can we represent Him to our world if we don't know Him?

Hello
my name is

John 15:15 NLT

¹⁵ I no longer call you slaves, because a master doesn't confide in his slaves. Now you are my friends, since I have told you everything the Father told me.

Hello

my name is