part two

What was the coming of the Holy Spirit like?

<sup>1</sup> On the day of Pentecost all the believers were meeting together in one place. <sup>2</sup> Suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the roaring of a mighty windstorm, and it filled the house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> Then, what looked like

Acts 2:3 NLT

Many times in scripture, fire represents the presence of God.

What does this special
closeness of God mean?

<sup>16</sup> After his baptism, as Jesus came up out of the water, the heavens were opened and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and settling on him. <sup>17</sup> And a voice from heaven said, “This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy.”

Matthew 3:16-17 NLT

The Holy Spirit gives us the ultimate confidence that we have been adopted into the family of God and that we are dearly loved.

<sup>16</sup> For his Spirit joins with our spirit to affirm that we are God's children.

- The Spirit gave them this ability.

“And we all hear these people speaking in our own languages about the wonderful things God has done!”

Acts 4:11b NLT

The first time the gospel is shared on the Day of Pentecost it was proclaimed to all people in their own language.

<sup>41</sup> Those who believed what Peter said were baptized and added to the church that day—about 3,000 in all.
